Rev. H. A. Grantham, of Quincy held services in the Episcopal church Wednesday evening.

Col. W. H. Hatch will speak in Kirkville in the Opera House, Saturday, August 6, at 1 p. m.

Simpson Ely, of Canton, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The corn continues to grow rapidly. Indications point to a larger crop in Adair county than last year.

Geo. Shibley, of Marrow township, has sold his farm on Shuteye to Judge Adam Shoop for $4100.

John Call, of Adair, was recently made quite ill by being stung by a wasp while at work in the harvest field.

D. B. Linder, who has been ill from the effects of a sun stroke received two years ago, is again able to be out.

Complete returns from many sections of the country indicate that the fruit crop will be the smallest for many years.

Harvesting will be generally completed by the close of the week, and grain and hay for the most part have been saved in excellent condition.

Attention is directed to the card of Dr. C. M. Wilcox which appears in this GRAPHIC. He is now located at Millard and will attend all calls promptly.

Leverette Leonard, the People's candidate for governor, failed to meet his engagement here Thursday afternoon. His place was filled by Mr. Mattox.

The enrollment of teachers in the county institute reached 100 Wednesday morning. A large number of visitors from other counties and towns have been present each day.

James W. Peeler, of Fayette, Mo., has accepted a position in the drug store of W. G. Fout. He comes highly recommended, and the patrons of the house will find him a very pleasant young gentleman.

The corner stone of the Presbyterian church will be laid with appropriate ceremonies next Monday, August 8, at 7 p. m. Duncan Brown, D. D., of Macon, will deliver the address. The public is cordially invited.

Edw. Story, Hatch's advance agent, was in the city Thursday, looking after his chief's fences and seeing that the hand-bills and posters announcing his coming were properly distributed and conspicuously posted.

Newside walks are going down in many places. Bestman's furniture store and J. E. Owen & Co.'s grocery store are having new walks put down this week; Miller's lumber yard is also getting the attention it has long needed.

The Rev. John Gillies will preach next Sunday at the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the morning service, there will be the public reception of members. At night, the third sermon in the series now being delivered will be preached, "The Osprey."

The social given by the ladies of the Christian church at the residence of Judge Ellison last Friday evening, was a very pleasant affair. The refreshments were delightful and a neat sum of money resulted as the proceeds of the evening's entertainment.

Father O'Shea, of Adair, was in town Monday and Tuesday, to arrange for the building of a Catholic church. He purchased three acres of land of W. G. Fout, east of the Ellison & Fout addition for a church site, and work will be begun on the building at an early day.

The District Convention of the Christian churches of Northeast Missouri will be held with the Kirkville church, commencing Tuesday evening, August 11, and continuing three days. An interesting program has been prepared. All are invited to attend the sessions of this convention.

A Kirkville teacher visited the Schuyler County Institute this week, and reports that under the able management of Professors Arnold, Bingham and Brightman, the institute is a decided success. The enrollment is the largest in the history of the county, and the work is strictly first-class.

Chas. H. Wood, of Shelby county, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. Gooch. It is his first visit here since August 6, 1862, when he stopped here to assist in entertaining Gen. McNeal. Shortly after McNeal's arrival Mr. Wood remembered that he had a pressing engagement elsewhere, and left abruptly by way of the west. He recognizes that there has been a wonderful change in Kirkville since his memorable visit here in 1862.

Thirty years ago to-morrow the roar of cannon, the screeching of shells and the rattle of musketry were heard in the streets of Kirkville. The next day the houses were filled with wounded, and each truck patch in the village was a harbor for the dead. How different now. Kirkville has grown from a village to a city. War's dread alarms have vanished and the silence to-morrow will only be broken by the hum of industry and commerce. May it ever be thus.

Let Us Advise You, Ladies.

We again feel called upon to do the female portion of our readers the favor of drawing their attention to the publications of Mess. A. McDowell & Co., 4 and 6 West 14th Street, New York. This firm import and publish the American edition of the Parisian Fashion Journals, "La Mode de Paris," 35c; "Paris Album of Fashion," 35c; "La Courtisane," 30c; and "La Mode," 15c. These books have been favorably commended upon by us in previous writings, but in consideration of the many improvements we have noticed we do not hesitate to speak of them as the first journals of their kind to be found on the bookstands. Their September numbers will contain all the latest Fall styles at least a month earlier than any other fashion paper. The plates in McDowell's Journals are not reproductions but are the work of French artists, done in Paris. Send for sample copy.

Grease closes the pores of the egg shells, and in this way often prevents their hatching; for this reason it is not a good plan to grease the bodies of setting hens.
